Following – willingness to follow a person.

Restraint – degree of dominant or submissive tendency, and ease of handling in difficult situations.

Social Dominance – degree of acceptance of social dominance by a person.

Elevation – degree of accepting dominance while in a position of no control, such as at the veterinarian or groomer.

Retrieving – degree of willingness to do something for you. Together with Social Attraction and Following, a key indicator for ease or difficulty in training.

Touch Sensitivity – degree of sensitivity to touch and a key indicator to the type of training equipment required.

Sound Sensitivity – degree of sensitivity to sound, such as loud noises or thunderstorms.

Sight Sensitivity – degree of response to a moving object, such as chasing bicycles, children or squirrels.

Stability – degree of startle response to a strange object.

What do the scores mean?Mostly 1's:

Strong desire to be pack leader, not shy.

Has a predisposition to be aggressive to people and other dogs and may bite.

Should be placed in a very experience home where the dog will be trained and worked with on a regular basis.

Mostly 2's:

Leadership aspirations.

May be hard to manage and has the capacity to bite.

Has lots of self-confidence.

Should be placed in and experienced home.

Needs a strict schedule and lots of exercise and training.

Has potential to be a great show dog.

Mostly 3's:

Can be a high-energy dog and may need lots of exercise.

Good with people and other animals.

Needs training, does very well at it and learns quickly.

Great dog for a second time owner.

Mostly 4's:

The kind of dog that makes the perfect pet.

Best choice for the first time owner.

Easy to train and rather quiet.

Good with elderly people and children.

Mostly 5's:

Fearful, shy, and needs special handling.

Will run away at the slightest stress in its life.

Strange people, strange places, different floor or ground surfaces may upset it.

Often afraid of loud noises and terrified of thunder storms.

Needs an environment that doesn't change too much.

Mostly 6's:

So independent that he doesn't need you or other people.

Doesn't care if he is trained or not – he is his own person. Not likely to bond to you.
